Noble Fully Repays Mining Land Taxes on Project 81

Toronto, Ontario – August 28, 2019 –Noble Mineral Exploration Inc. (“Noble” or the “Company”) (TSX-V:NOB, FRANKFURT:NB7, OTC.PK:NLPXF) is pleased to announced that it has fully repaid all mining land taxes that had accrued on the patented properties comprising the bulk of its Project 81 property.

As previously announced (see Noble’s news release of October 17, 2017, as well as Noble’s interim and annual financial statements and management’s discussion and analysis filed during the ensuing period), Noble had entered into an agreement (the “Agreement”) with Ontario’s Ministry of Energy, Northern Development and Mines regarding the payment of tax arrears and accrued interest (the “Tax Arrears”) on Noble’s Project 81. The Agreement also covered payment of taxes accruing and due through the end of 2019. Under the Agreement, the total payable by Noble in installments was $285,468.65. Subsequent to entering into the Agreement, Noble diligently paid all installments, and elected to pay the final installment before the scheduled payment date. Having paid that final installment, Noble has received confirmation from the Government of Ontario that all payments were received and that there are currently no mining land taxes owing on the patented properties within Project 81.
